10 April 1992

A Framework Law relating to the Government of Emergency and National Reconstruction has been established by Decree Law No. 25418 of 6 April 1992. A Manisfesto to the Nation of 5 April 1992 by the President of the Republic is deemed to form part of the Decree.

This measure became necessary due to Parliament's inability to function together with the obvious obstructionist tactics and hidden conspirational methods of the partisan elites which are thwarting the efforts of the people and the Government. The Government indicated also other reasons such as terrorism and the fight against drug trafficking.

(The articles of the Convention which are being derogated from under the above-mentioned Decree have been requested from the Government of Peru.)

9 February, 22 May and 23 October 1995

The Government of Peru notified, under article 4 (3) of the Covenant, that it had declared, lifted or extended the state of emergency in a number of departments, provinces and districts of Peru indicating that the measures were prompted by the persistence of acts of violence caused by terrorist groups and drug traffickers, who are fomenting a climate of insecurity that threatens the normal conduct of public and private activities. The Government of Peru specified that the provisions from which it has derogated are articles 9, 12, 17 and 21 of the Covenant. [For reasons of economy and size, it will not be possible to include the texts of all the notifications concerning the states of emergencies as declared, lifted or extended. For a comprehensive list of these actions, see depositary notification C.N.460.1995. TREATIES-13 of 10 February 1996.]

[Ed. note: as follows:

C.N.460.1995.TREATIES-13 (Depositary Notification)

INTERNATIONAL COVENANT ON CIVIL AND POLITICAL RIGHTS ADOPTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE UNITED NATIONS ON 16 DECEMBER 1966

Notification by Peru under Article 4 of the Covenant

The Secretary-General of the United Nations, acting in his capacity as depositary, and further to depositary notification C.N.249.1992.TREATIES-13 of 2 October 1992, communicates the following:

On 9 February, 22 May and 23 October 1995, the Government of Peru notified, under article 4 (3) of the above Covenant, that it had declared, lifted or extended the state of emergency in a number of departments, provinces and districts of Peru indicating that the measures were prompted by the persistence of acts of violence caused by terrorist groups and drug traffickers, who are fomenting a climate of insecurity that threatens the normal conduct of public and private activities.

The Government of Peru specified that the provisions from which it has derogated are articles 9, 12, 17 and 21 of the Covenant.

An English and French translation of a recapitulative table, showing the departments, provinces and districts of Peru under which a state of emergency has been declared, lifted or extended from 23 April 1992 to 9 September 1995, as provided by the Government of Peru, is attached herewith.

C.N.459.1996.TREATIES-11 (Depositary Notification)

INTERNATIONAL COVENANT ON CIVIL AND POLITICAL RIGHTS ADOPTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE UNITED NATIONS ON 16 DECEMBER 1966

Notification by Peru under Article 4 of the Covenant

The Secretary-General of the United Nations, acting in his capacity as depositary, communicates the following:

I

On 4 and 30 December 1996, the Government of Peru notified, under article 4 (3) of the above Covenant, that it had extended the state of emergency in a number of departments, provinces and districts of Peru, indicating that the measures were prompted by the persistence of acts of civil disturbances and by the need to complete the process of pacification in these areas of the country.

A recapitulative table of the Decrees by which a state of emergency was extended in various departments, provinces and districts of Peru between 6 September 1995 and 18 December 1996 is attached herewith. These extensions resume previous extensions communicated by depositary notifications C.N.460.1995.TREATIES-13 dated 20 February 1996 and C.N.451.1996.TREATIES-10 dated 10 February 1997. [Ed. note: see above]

II

Also on 30 December 1996, the Secretary-General received from the Government of Peru a notification, made under article 4 (3) of the above Covenant, transmitting a Decree by the President of the Republic, establishing the state of emergency as from 18 December 1996 for a 60-day period in the Department of Lima and the Constitutional Province of Callao, indicating that the measures were prompted by the occurrence of subversive actions which have caused a civil disturbance and by the need to take corrective measures for the purposes of the process of pacification in this area of the country.

The Government of Peru has specified that the provisions from which it has derogated are articles 9, 12, 17 and 21 of the Covenant. An English translation of the above notification and decree is attached herewith.

Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations

New York, 30 December 1996

Sir,

I have the honour to transmit to you, in accordance with article 4, paragraph 3, of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, a copy of the Supreme Decree establishing a state of emergency as from 18 December 1996 for a 60-day period in the department of Lima and the constitutional province of Callao, in Peru, which was published on 27 December 1996 in the Official Journal El Peruano.

These legal provisions envisage the suspension of the constitutional guarantees set forth in article 2, paragraphs 9, 11, 12 and 24 (f), of the Political Constitution of Peru; corresponding to articles 17, 12, 21 and 9 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, concerning inviolability of domicile, freedom of movement within the national territory, the right of peaceful assembly and the right to liberty and security of person.

These exceptional measures, which were adopted pursuant to article 137 of the Political Constitution of Peru, were prompted by the occurrence of subversive actions which have caused a civil disturbance and by the need to take corrective measures for the purposes of the process of pacification in this area of the country.

Accept, Sir, the renewed assurance of my highest consideration.

SUPREME DECREE NO. 063-96 DE/CCFFAA

THE PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC

In view of note No. 3825-CCFFAA-DOP/PLN of 18 December 1996, in which the Armed Forces Joint Command is requesting the declaration of a state of emergency for a 60-day period in the department of Lima and the constitutional province of Callao, owing to the occurrence of subversive actions which have caused a civil process of pacification in this area of the country,

WHEREAS:

Within the legal framework established by the Political Constitution of Peru, measures must be taken to preserve and restore law and order; in exercise of the powers vested in him by article 137 of the Political Constitution of Peru; with the approval of the Council of Ministers and with the instruction to report to the Congress of the Republic,

HEREBY DECREES:

Article 1. A state of emergency is declared for a period of sixty (60) days, as from 18 December 1996, in the department of Lima and the constitutional province of Callao.

Article 2. To that end, the constitutional guarantees set forth in article 2, paragraphs 9,11,12 and 24 (f), of the Political Constitution of Peru shall be suspended in the aforementioned jurisdictions.

Article 3. The Armed Forces shall be responsible for ensuring law and order, in accordance with the provisions of Act No. 24150, as amended by Legislative Decree No. 749.

Article 4. This Supreme Decree shall be countersigned by the President of the Council of Ministers and by the Ministers of Defence and the Interior.

Done at Government House, Lima, on 18 December 1996.
