RESERVATIONS AND DECLARATIONS

(Unless otherwise indicated, the reservations and declarations were made upon ratification, accession or succession)

Note

In communications received on 8 March 1989, 19 and 20 April 1989, respectively, the Governments of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, the Byelorussian Soviet Socialist Republic and the Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic notified the Secretary-General that they had decided to withdraw the reservations made upon ratification relating to article 29 (1). The reservations were identical in essence, mutatis mutandis, to the reservation made by the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. For the text of the reservations, see United Nations, Treaty Series, vol. 1249, pp. 117, 121 and 133.

[Ed. note: as follows:

According to paragraph 2 of the article 29 of the Convention the Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic does not consider itself bound by paragraph 1 of the article 29 of the Convention, in compliance with which any dispute between two or more States Parties concerning the interpretation or application of the present Convention which is not settled by negotiation shall, at the request of one of them, be submitted to arbitration or be referred to the International Court of Justice and declare, that in order to submit such a dispute to arbitration or to refer it to the International Court of Justice it is necessary to have an agreement of all the disputing parties in every separate case.]
