B. Opening and duration of the session

2. The first session of the Committee against Torture was held at the United Nations Office at Geneva, from 18 to 22 April 1988.

3. The Committee held seven meetings. An account of the deliberations of the Committee is contained in the relevant summary records (CAT/C/SR.1-7).

C. Membership and attendance

4. In accordance with article 17 of the Convention, the States parties, at their first meeting, held at the United Nations Office at Geneva on 26 November 1987, elected by secret ballot the 10 members of the Committee against Torture from a list of persons nominated by the States parties. (The decisions taken by the States parties at their first meeting are contained in document CAT/SP/SR.1.)

5. The regular term of office of the members of the Committee is four years. In accordance with article 17, paragraph 5, of the Convention, the Chairman of the first meeting of the States parties chose by lot the names of the five members of the Committee whose terms would expire at the end of the two years.

6. The States parties decided that the term of office of the members of the Committee should begin on 1 January 1988.

7. The list of the members of the Committee, together with an indication of the duration of their terms of office, appears in annex II to the present report.

The election of a third vice-chairman was postponed to the second session. The officers elected were:

Chairman: Mr. Joseph VOYAME

Vice-Chairman: Mr. Alexis DIPANDA MOUELLE
Mr. Ricardo Gil LAVEDRA

Rapporteur: Mr. Dimitar Nikolov MIKHAILOV

F. Agenda

11. At its 1st meeting, the Committee adopted the provisional agenda contained in document CAT/C/1 as the agenda of its first session, as follows:

II. RULES OF PROCEDURE

12. Article 18, paragraph 2, of the Convention provides that "the Committee shall establish its own rules of procedure". In order to facilitate its task, the Secretariat prepared draft rules of procedure (CAT/C/L.1 and Add.1), which were considered by the Committee at its 2nd to 6th meetings, held from 18 to 20 April 1988.

13. The Committee adopted rules of procedure comprising "General rules" (rules 1 to 63), "Reports from States parties under article 19 of the Convention" (rules 64 to 68), "Procedure for the consideration of communications received under article 21 of the Convention" (rules 1/21 to 11/21) "Procedure for the consideration of communications received under article 22 of the Convention" (rules 1/22 to 17/22) and "Interpretation and amendments (rules A and B). The text of the rules as adopted is contained in annex III to the present report.

14. A detailed account of the discussion of the rules of procedure is contained in the summary records of the Committee (CAT/C/SR.2-6).

15. Owing to the complexity of the matter, at its 3rd meeting, on 19 April 1988, the Committee decided to postpone to its second session consideration of the rules of procedure relating to its functions under article 20 of the Convention.

III. MATTERS RELATING TO THE COMMITTEE'S METHODS OF WORK IN RESPECT OF THE CONSIDERATION OF REPORTS TO BE SUBMITTED BY THE STATES PARTIES IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARTICLE 19 OF THE CONVENTION

16. The Committee considered this agenda item at its 6th meeting, on 20 April 1988.

A. General guidelines regarding the form and content of reports to be submitted by the States parties under article 19, paragraph 1, of the Convention

17. The Committee had a preliminary discussion on the basis of the provisional guidelines regarding the form and content of initial reports to be submitted by States parties under article 19 of the Convention (CAT/C/L.2) prepared by the Secretariat and transmitted to the States parties on 10 December 1987. The general guidelines (see annex IV to the present report) were provisionally adopted, on the understanding that they would be reviewed in the light of information provided in the initial reports of States parties to be examined at the second session (for the list of initial reports to be submitted by States parties, see annex V).

B. Participation of the Chairman of the Committee in the meeting of persons chairing the supervisory bodies entrusted with the consideration of reports submitted by States parties to United Nations instruments on human rights

18. The Committee noted that the General Assembly, by its resolutions 41/121 of 4 December 1986 and 42/105 of 7 December 1987, had invited the Chairmen of the supervisory bodies entrusted with the consideration of reports submitted by States parties to United Nations instruments on human rights to meet at the United Nations Office at Geneva from 10 to 14 October 1988. The Committee took note of the draft provisional agenda (CAT/C/L.3) prepared by the Secretariat for that meeting. The Committee agreed on the participation of its Chairman at that meeting.

IV. FUTURE MEETINGS OF THE COMMITTEE

19. In accordance with rule 2 of the rules of procedure, the Committee decided to hold two sessions at Geneva in 1989 of two weeks' duration each, preferably in April and November.

20. In addition, at its 7th meeting, on 22 April 1988, the Committee adopted, without a vote, the following decision concerning the possibility of convening a second session in 1988:

"The Committee against Torture,

"Having reviewed its obligations and responsibilities under the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment,

"Taking into account the serious situation regarding torture in the world and the need for urgent and effective measures against torture,

"Referring to its decision that, in order to carry out its responsibilities under the Convention at a minimum acceptable level, two sessions of the Committee would be necessary each year (see rule 2 of the rules of procedure of the Committee),

"1. Decides to request the Secretary-General to:

(a) Review the current and projected resource requirements for the operation of the Committee in 1988;

(b) Consider the possibility of arranging a second session of the Committee, within the overall budget contemplated for the first financial period by the First Meeting of States parties to the Convention;

"2. Further requests the Secretary-General to inform the Committee and the States parties to the Convention of the arrangements that he has been able to set in train on the basis of such review."

V. ADOPTION OF THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE

21. At its 7th meeting, the Committee considered the draft of its first annual report covering its activities at the first session, held in 1988. The report, as amended in the course of the discussion, was adopted unanimously.

X. CONDUCT OF BUSINESS

Quorum

Rule 36

Six members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum.

Powers of the Chairman

Rule 37

The Chairman shall declare the opening and closing of each meeting of the Committee, direct the discussion, ensure observance of these rules, accord the right to speak, put questions to the vote and announce decisions. The Chairman, subject to these rules, shall have control over the proceedings of the Committee and over the maintenance of order at its meetings. The Chairman may, in the course of the discussion of an item, propose to the Committee the limitation of the time to be allowed to speakers, the limitation of the number of times each speaker may speak on any question and the closure of the list of speakers. He shall rule on points of order. He shall also have the power to propose adjournment or closure of the debate or adjournment or suspension of a meeting. Debate shall be confined to the question before the Committee, and the Chairman may call a speaker to order if his remarks are not relevant to the subject under discussion.

Points of order

Rule 38

During the discussion of any matter, a member may, at any time, raise a point of order, and such point of order shall immediately be decided upon by the Chairman in accordance with the rules of procedure. Any appeal against the ruling of the Chairman shall immediately be put to the vote, and the ruling of the Chairman shall stand unless overruled by a majority of the members present. A member raising a point of order may not speak on the substance of the matter under discussion.

Time-limit on statements

Rule 39

The Committee may limit the time allowed to each speaker on any question. When debate is limited and a speaker exceeds his allotted time, the Chairman shall call him to order without delay.

List of speakers

Rule 40

During the course of a debate, the Chairman may announce the list of speakers and, with the consent of the Committee, declare the list closed. The Chairman may, however, accord the right of reply to any member or representative if a speech delivered after he has declared the list closed makes this desirable. When the debate on an item is concluded because there are no other speakers, the Chairman shall declare the debate closed. Such closure shall have the same effect as closure by the consent of the Committee.

Suspension or adjournment of meetings

Rule 41

During the discussion of any matter, a member may move the suspension or the adjournment of the meeting. No discussion on such motions shall be permitted, and they shall immediately be put to the vote.

Adjournment of debate

Rule 42

During the discussion of any matter, a member may move the adjournment of the debate on the item under discussion. In addition to the proposer of the motion, one member may speak in favour of and one against the motion, after which the motion shall immediately be put to the vote.

Closure of debate

Rule 43

A member may, at any time, move the closure of the debate on the item under discussion, whether or not any other member has signified his wish to speak. Permission to speak on the closure of the debate shall be accorded only to two speakers opposing the closure, after which the motion shall immediately be put to the vote.

Order of motions

Rule 44

Subject to rule 38, the following motions shall have precedence in the following order over all other proposals or motions before the meeting:

- (a) To suspend the meeting;
- (b) To adjourn the meeting;
- (c) To adjourn the debate on the item under discussion;
- (d) For the closure of the debate on the item under discussion.

Submission of proposals

Rule 45

Unless otherwise decided by the Committee, proposals and substantive amendments or motions submitted by members shall be introduced in writing and handed to the secretariat, and their consideration shall, if so requested by any member, be deferred until the next meeting on a following day.

Decisions on competence

Rule 46

Subject to rule 44, any motion by a member calling for a decision on the competence of the Committee to adopt a proposal submitted to it shall be put to the vote immediately before a vote is taken on the proposal in question.

Withdrawal of motions

Rule 47

A motion may be withdrawn by the member who proposed it at any time before voting on it has commenced, provided that the motion has not been amended. A motion which has thus been withdrawn may be reintroduced by any member.

Reconsideration of proposals

Rule 48

When a proposal has been adopted or rejected, it may not be reconsidered at the same session unless the Committee so decides. Permission to speak on a motion to reconsider shall be accorded only to two speakers in favour of the motion and to two speakers opposing the motion, after which it shall be immediately put to the vote.

XI. VOTING

Voting rights

Rule 49

Each member of the Committee shall have one vote.

Adoption of decisions

Rule 50 a/

Decisions of the Committee shall be made by a majority vote of the members present.

Equally divided votes

Rule 51

If a vote is equally divided on matters other than elections, the proposal shall be regarded as rejected.

Method of voting

Rule 52

Subject to rule 58 of these rules, the Committee shall normally vote by show of hands, except that any member may request a roll-call, which shall then be taken in the alphabetical order of the names of the members of the Committee, beginning with the member whose name is drawn by lot by the Chairman.

Roll-call votes

Rule 53

The vote of each member participating in any roll-call shall be inserted in the record.

a/ The Committee decided, at its first session, that in a footnote to rule 50 of the rules of procedure attention should be drawn to the following:

1. The members of the Committee generally expressed the view that its method of work normally should allow for attempts to reach decisions by consensus before voting, provided that the Convention and the rules of procedure were observed and that such attempts did not unduly delay the work of the Committee.

2. Bearing in mind paragraph 1 above, the Chairman at any meeting may, and at the request of any member shall, put the proposal to a vote.

Conduct during voting and explanation of votes

Rule 54

After the voting has commenced, there shall be no interruption of the voting except on a point of order by a member in connection with the actual conduct of the voting. Brief statements by members consisting solely of explanations of their votes may be permitted by the Chairman before the voting has commenced or after the voting has been completed.

Division of proposals

Rule 55

Parts of a proposal shall be voted on separately if a member requests that the proposal be divided. Those parts of the proposal which have been approved shall then be put to the vote as a whole; if all the operative parts of a proposal have been rejected, the proposal shall be considered to have been rejected as a whole.

Order of voting on amendments

Rule 56

1. When an amendment to a proposal is moved, the amendment shall be voted on first. When two or more amendments to a proposal are moved the Committee shall first vote on the amendment furthest removed in substance from the original proposal and then on the amendment next furthest removed therefrom, and so on, until all amendments have been put to the vote. If one or more amendments are adopted, the amended proposal shall then be voted upon.

2. A motion is considered an amendment to a proposal if it merely adds to, deletes from or revises part of that proposal.

Order of voting on proposals

Rule 57

1. If two or more proposals relate to the same question, the Committee shall, unless it decides otherwise, vote on the proposals in the order in which they have been submitted.

2. The Committee may, after each vote on a proposal, decide whether to vote on the next proposal.

3. Any motions requiring that no decision be taken on the substance of such proposals shall, however, be considered as previous questions and shall be put to the vote before them.

Method of elections

Rule 58

Elections shall be held by secret ballot, unless the Committee decides otherwise in the case of elections to fill a place for which there is only one candidate.

Conduct of elections when only one elective place is to be filled

Rule 59

1. When only one person or member is to be elected and no candidate obtains in the first ballot the majority required, a second ballot shall be taken, which shall be restricted to the two candidates who obtained the greatest number of votes.
2. If the second ballot is inconclusive and a majority vote of members present is required, a third ballot shall be taken in which votes may be cast for any eligible candidate. If the third ballot is inconclusive, the next ballot shall be restricted to the two candidates who obtained the greatest number of votes in the third ballot and so on, with unrestricted and restricted ballots alternating, until a person or member is elected.
3. If the second ballot is inconclusive and a two-thirds majority is required, the balloting shall be continued until one candidate secures the necessary two-thirds majority. In the next three ballots, votes may be cast for any eligible candidate. If three such unrestricted ballots are inconclusive, the next three ballots shall be restricted to the two candidates who obtained the greatest number of votes in the third such unrestricted ballot, and the following three ballots shall be unrestricted, and so on until a person or member is elected.

Conduct of elections when two or more elective places are to be filled

Rule 60

When two or more elective places are to be filled at one time under the same conditions, those candidates obtaining in the first ballot the majority required shall be elected. If the number of candidates obtaining such majority is less than the number of persons or members to be elected, there shall be additional ballots to fill the remaining places, the voting being restricted to the candidates obtaining the greatest number of votes in the previous ballot, to a number not more than twice the places remaining to be filled; provided that, after the third inconclusive ballot, votes may be cast for any eligible candidates. If three such unrestricted ballots are inconclusive, the next three ballots shall be restricted to the candidates who obtained the greatest number of votes in the third of the unrestricted ballots, to a number not more than twice the places remaining to be filled, and the following three ballots thereafter shall be unrestricted, and so on until all the places have been filled.

XIII. SUBSIDIARY BODIES

1. In accordance with the following rules, the Committee shall decide as soon as possible whether or not a communication is admissible under article 22 of the Convention.
2. The Committee shall, unless it decides otherwise, deal with communications in the order in which they have been placed before it by the Secretariat.
3. The Committee may, if it deems it appropriate, decide to consider jointly two or more communications.
4. The Committee may, if it deems it appropriate, decide to join the consideration of the question of admissibility of a communication to the consideration of the communication on its merits.

Establishment of a Working Group

Rule 11/22

1. The Committee may, in accordance with rule 61, set up a Working Group to meet shortly before its sessions, or at any other convenient time to be decided by the Committee in consultation with the Secretary-General, for the purpose of making recommendations to the Committee regarding the fulfilment of the conditions of admissibility of communications laid down in article 22 of the Convention and assisting the Committee in any manner which the Committee may decide.
2. The Working Group shall not comprise more than five members of the Committee. The Working Group shall elect its own officers, develop its own working methods, and apply as far as possible the rules of procedure of the Committee to its meetings.

Conditions for admissibility of communications

Rule 12/22

1. With a view to reaching a decision on the admissibility of a communication, the Committee or its Working Group shall ascertain:
 - (a) That the communication is not anonymous and that it emanates from an individual subject to the jurisdiction of a State party recognizing the competence of the Committee under article 22 of the Convention;
 - (b) That the individual claims to be a victim of a violation by the State party concerned of the provisions of the Convention. The communication should be submitted by the individual himself or by his relatives or designated representatives or by others on behalf of an alleged victim when it appears that the victim is unable to submit the communication himself, and the author of the communication justifies his acting on the victim's behalf;

(c) That the communication is not an abuse of the right to submit a communication under article 22 of the Convention;

(d) That the communication is not incompatible with the provisions of the Convention;

(e) That the same matter has not been and is not being examined under another procedure of international investigation or settlement;

(f) That the individual has exhausted all available domestic remedies. However, this shall not be the rule where the application of the remedies is unreasonably prolonged or is unlikely to bring effective relief to the person who is the victim of the violation of this Convention.

2. The Committee shall consider a communication, which is otherwise admissible, whenever the conditions laid down in article 22, paragraph 5, are met.

Additional information, clarifications and observations

Rule 13/22

1. The Committee or the Working Group established under rule 11/22 may request, through the Secretary-General, the State party concerned or the author of the communication to submit additional written information, clarifications or observations relevant to the question of admissibility of the communication.

2. Requests referred to in paragraph 1 of this rule which are addressed to the State party shall be accompanied by the text of the communication.

3. A communication may not be declared admissible unless the State party concerned has received the text of the communication and has been given an opportunity to furnish information or observations as provided in paragraph 1 of this rule, including information relating to the exhaustion of domestic remedies.

4. The Committee or the Working Group may adopt a questionnaire for requesting such additional information or clarifications.

5. The Committee or the Working Group shall indicate a time-limit for the submission of such additional information or clarification with a view to avoiding undue delay.

6. If the time-limit is not respected by the State party concerned or the author of a communication, the Committee or the Working Group may decide to consider the admissibility of the communication in the light of available information.

7. If the State party concerned disputes the contention of the author of a communication that all available domestic remedies have been exhausted, the State party is required to give details of the effective remedies available to the alleged victim in the particular circumstances of the case and in accordance with the provisions of article 22, paragraph 5 (b), of the Convention.

8. Within such time-limit as indicated by the Committee or the Working Group, the State party or the author of a communication may be afforded an opportunity to comment on any submission received from the other party pursuant to request made under the present rule. Non-receipt of such comments within the established time-limit should, as a rule, not delay the consideration of the admissibility of the communication.

9. In the course of the consideration of the question of the admissibility of a communication, the Committee or the Working Group may request the State party to take steps to avoid a possible irreparable damage to the person or persons who claim to be victim(s) of the alleged violation. Such a request addressed to the State party does not imply that any decision has been reached on the question of the admissibility of the communication.

Inadmissible communications

Rule 14/22

1. Where the Committee decides that a communication is inadmissible under article 22 of the Convention, or its consideration is suspended or discontinued, the Committee shall as soon as possible transmit its decision, through the Secretary-General, to the author of the communication and, where the communication has been transmitted to a State party concerned, to that State party.

2. If the Committee has declared a communication inadmissible under article 22, paragraph 5, of the Convention, this decision may be reviewed at a later date by the Committee upon a written request by or on behalf of the individual concerned. Such written request shall contain documentary evidence to the effect that the reasons for inadmissibility referred to in article 22, paragraph 5, of the Convention no longer apply.

C. Consideration of communications on their merits

Method of dealing with admissible communications

Rule 15/22

1. When it has decided that a communication is admissible under article 22 of the Convention, the Committee shall transmit to the State party, through the Secretary-General, the text of its decision together with any submission received from the author of the communication not already transmitted to the State party under rule 13/22, paragraph 2. The Committee shall also inform the author of the communication, through the Secretary-General, of its decision.

2. Within six months, the State party concerned shall submit to the Committee written explanations or statements clarifying the case under consideration and the remedy, if any, that may have been taken by it. The Committee may indicate, if it deems it necessary, the type of information it wishes to receive from the State party concerned.

3. In the course of its consideration, the Committee may inform the State party of its views on the desirability, because of urgency, of taking interim measures to avoid possible irreparable damage to the person or persons who claim to be victim(s) of the alleged violation. In doing so, the Committee shall inform the State party concerned that such expression of its views on interim measures does not prejudice its final views on the merits of the communication.

4. Any explanations or statements submitted by a State party pursuant to this rule shall be transmitted, through the Secretary-General, to the author of the communication who may submit any additional written information or observations within such time-limit as the Committee shall decide.

5. The Committee may invite the author of the communication or his representative and representatives of the State party concerned to be present at specified closed meetings of the Committee in order to provide further clarifications or to answer questions on the merits of the communication.

6. The Committee may revoke its decision that a communication is admissible in the light of any explanations or statements submitted by the State party pursuant to this rule. However, before the Committee considers revoking that decision, the explanations or statements concerned must be transmitted to the author of the communication so that he may submit additional information or observations within a time-limit set by the Committee.

Rule 16/22

1. Admissible communications shall be considered by the Committee in the light of all information made available to it by or on behalf of the individual and by the State party concerned. The Committee may refer the communication to the Working Group for assistance in this task.

2. The Committee or the Working Group may at any time, in the course of the examination, obtain through the Secretary-General any documentation that may assist in the disposal of the case from United Nations bodies or the specialized agencies.

3. After consideration of an admissible communication, the Committee shall formulate its views thereon. The views of the Committee shall be forwarded, through the Secretary-General, to the author of the communication and to the State party concerned.

4. Any member of the Committee may request that a summary of his individual opinion be appended to the views of the Committee when they are forwarded to the author of the communication and to the State party concerned.

5. The State party concerned shall be invited to inform the Committee in due course of the action it takes in conformity with the Committee's views.

ANNEX IV

Provisional guidelines regarding the form and content of initial reports to be submitted by States parties under article 19 of the Convention

Under article 19, paragraph 1, of the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment,

"the States Parties shall submit to the Committee [against Torture], through the Secretary-General of the United Nations, reports on the measures they have taken to give effect to their undertakings under this Convention, within one year after the entry into force of the Convention for the State Party concerned. Thereafter the States Parties shall submit supplementary reports every four years on any new measures taken and such other reports as the Committee may request."

Without prejudice to any decision which the Committee, established under article 17 of the Convention, may take with regard to the form and content of reports to be submitted by the States parties under article 19 of the Convention, the Secretary-General wishes to suggest that initial reports by States parties be presented in two parts as follows:

Part I: Information of a general nature

This part should:

- (a) Describe briefly the general legal framework within which torture as defined in article 1, paragraph 1, of the Convention as well as other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment are prohibited and eliminated in the reporting State;
- (b) Indicate whether the reporting State is a party to an international instrument or whether it has national legislation which does or may contain provisions of wider application than those provided for under the Convention;
- (c) Indicate whether the provisions of the Convention can be invoked before and directly enforced by the courts, other tribunals or administrative authorities or whether they have to be transformed into internal laws or administrative regulations to be enforced by the authorities concerned;
- (d) Indicate what judicial, administrative or other competent authorities have jurisdictions over matters dealt with in the Convention;
- (e) Indicate what remedies are available to an individual who claims to have been a victim of torture or other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment;
- (f) Describe briefly the actual situation as regards the practical implementation of the Convention in the reporting State and indicate any factors and difficulties affecting the degree of fulfilment of the obligations of the reporting State under the Convention.

Part II: Information in relation to each of the articles in part I of the Convention

This part should provide specific information in relation to the implementation by the reporting State of articles 2 to 16 of the Convention, in accordance with the sequence of those articles and their respective provisions. It should describe in relation to the provisions of each article:

- (a) The legislative, judicial, administrative or other measures in force which give effect to those provisions;
- (b) Any factors or difficulties affecting the practical implementation of those provisions;
- (c) Any information on concrete cases and situations where measures giving effect to those provisions have been enforced.

The report should be accompanied by sufficient copies in one of the working languages (English, French, Russian or Spanish) of the principal legislative and other texts referred to in the report. These will be made available to members of the Committee. It should be noted, however, that they will not be reproduced for general distribution with the report. It is desirable therefore that, when a text is not actually quoted in or annexed to the report itself, the report should contain sufficient information to be understood without reference to it.
