11. In accordance with rule 68 of the provisional rules of procedure, representatives of the States parties shall be invited to attend the meetings of the Committee when their reports are examined. Such representatives should be able to answer questions put to them by the Committee and make statements on reports already submitted by their State, and may also submit further information. In accordance with its decision 8 related to the consideration of reports under the two Optional Protocols, the Committee may also offer States a choice of technical review for the consideration of reports under the Optional Protocol on the involvement of children in armed conflict.

12. In accordance with rule 68 of the Committee's provisional rules of procedure, the Secretary-General has notified the States parties concerned of the opening date, duration and place of the forty-eighth session of the Committee, at which their respective reports will be examined, and has invited them to send representatives to attend these meetings of the Committee.

Item 5. Cooperation with other United Nations bodies, specialized agencies and other competent bodies

13. Under this item, the Committee will pursue its discussion of ways and areas in which existing cooperation with various relevant bodies could be further strengthened to enhance the promotion and protection of the rights of the child.

Item 6. Methods of work of the Committee

14. Under this item, the Committee will pursue its discussion concerning the organization of its future work, as well as the procedure to be followed in the consideration of reports by States parties and their follow-up, including where necessary areas identified for technical assistance. In particular, the Committee will consider modalities of addressing the backlog of reports pending consideration.

Item 7. Days of general discussion

15. In accordance with rule 75 of its provisional rules of procedure, the Committee decided at its forty-sixth session that a general day of discussion would be held during its forty-ninth session devoted to the issue of education in situations of emergency. The day of general discussion will take place on Friday, 19 September 2008. At its forty-seventh session, the Committee adopted an outline for the discussion day (see CRC/C/47/3, annex). Documentation and information related to the day of general discussion is available on the web page of the Committee on the Rights of the Child at www.ohchr.org/english/bodies/crc/discussion.htm.

Item 8. General comments

16. Under this item, the Committee will pursue the elaboration of general comments based on the various principles and provisions of the Convention, and specifically on two drafts, one related to the rights of indigenous children and one on child participation.

Item 9. Future meetings

17. Under this item, the Committee will be informed of any developments relating to the schedule of its future meetings.

Item 10. Other matters

18. Under this item, members will discuss such other matters relating to the work of the Committee as may be necessary.
